DELMAS WILL TAKE CHARGE OF DEFENSE

And Will Attempt to at Least Nullify the Harm Done by Gleason

Who Allowed Jerome an Opening of Which the District Attorney Quickly Availed Himself

WOMEN ALLOWED TO LEAVE THE COURTROOM

And the Countess and Mrs. Carnegie Quickly Went Out, When the Language of the Testimony Grated on Feminine Sensibilities.

New York, Feb. 6.—Following a counsel of attorneys for Harry Thaw just previous to the opening of court this morning, in which the defendant took part, it was announced that throughout the rest of the hearing Delphin M. Delmas will be in charge assisted by Attorney Daniel O'Reilly, Attorneys Gleason, Hartbridge, McPike and Peabody will act in advisory capacities. Jerome opened the proceedings with a long exposition on the objection to the introduction of certain testimony admitted yesterday and the question of insanity tests. When Thaw came into the court room today, he appeared to be on the verge of nervous wreck. It was evident that he appreciated what a crazy mess was made of the first round of his defense yesterday.

The countess of Yarmouth, Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie and Josiah and Edward Thaw were in their accustomed seats today. Mrs. William Thaw and Evelyn Thaw remained in the clerk's room. The wife saw her husband for a few moments in the prisoner's pen.

Attorney Delmas called Benjamin Bowman, a door keeper at the Madison Square Garden theatre as the first witness. Bowman said he had a conversation in 1903 with White about Thaw. "White came to me after the show," said Bowman "and asked if Evelyn Nesbit had gone home. I told him yes, and he said I was a ———. I told him to go and see for himself. White came back and putting his hand in his pocket and drawing a revolver said 'I'll find and kill that ——— before daylight.' I saw Thaw on Fifth avenue five days later and told him about it."

He said White's face was black with anger when he made the threat. Justice Fitzgerald at this point said: "If there are any ladies present, whose sense of propriety is offended by the language to be developed in the testimony they may now have an opportunity of leaving court." The countess of Yarmouth and Mrs. Carnegie quickly left the room. Jerome took up the cross-examination of Bowman, carrying the witness slowly and carefully over all the details of his life. White Bowman was being cross-examined, the Countess Yarmouth and Mrs. Carnegie returned to the room.

Jerome tested Bowman's memory carefully. He elicited the information that the witness had been an usher at fifty cents a day.

"Have you been paid or received any compensation whatever for testifying here?" Jerome asked. "I have not," replied Bowman.

In a reply as to what else transpired between him and White Bowman said: "When White came to the stage door he asked where Miss Nesbit was and I told him she had gone with Harry Thaw, to which he replied, 'Oh, that Pittsburgher?'"

"Did you hear White mention Thaw's name when he made that threat?" asked Jerome.

"No."

On re-direct examination Bowman said that Thaw came to the theatre that night in an automobile and called for Evelyn Nesbit.

William O. Howard, a piano salesman, was the next witness called by the defense, but he was withdrawn without being allowed to testify owing to objections by the State.

Howard declared that he did not know White, but had talked to him. The defense will probably introduce him later.

Martin Green, a newspaper man, was the next witness called. He declared he was at Thaw's side immediately after the shooting. "What was his manner?" asked Delmas.

Jerome objected, but the witness was permitted to answer and stated that Thaw's eyes were popping from his head and his lips were hanging down. Delmas' attempts to get Green's opinion as to Thaw's sanity, however, precipitated a wrangle which was only ended by the noon adjournment.

Dissatisfied With Proceedings.

New York, Feb. 6.—Certain of the attorneys for Harry K. Thaw were not pleased with the proceedings Tuesday in court, and as a result a conference of the counsel was held. Delphin M. Delmas, upon leaving the courtroom, had declared flatly that he was dissatisfied with the proceedings, and intimated that he was surprised that the conduct of the defense for the day had been intrusted to John B. Gleason rather than to himself. "Dr. Charles C. Wiley, the Pittsburgh physician who testified for the defense and was so sharply cross-examined by District Attorney Jerome, should not have been put on the stand," Attorney Delmas said. It had been rumored in the courtroom that Harry Thaw was pleased with Mr. Gleason's address to the jury on Monday and that he directed that Mr. Gleason should take charge of the case Tuesday. Thaw's attorneys were closeted at Attorney McPike's office. When the conference broke up nothing definite as to what transpired was made public. Mr. McPike was asked whether the rumor that unless Delmas was given entire charge of the defense he would withdraw was correct. "As to that rumor, I can only say that you will have to await developments," it was said that at the conference five of the defendant's counsel informed Mr. Gleason that unless he desisted from conducting Thaw's case individually and irrespective of their wishes, they should withdraw from the case. Mr. Gleason insisted, according to the author of the report, that he had not usurped the position of senior counsel, but had taken the initiative in the proceedings at the request of Thaw himself.

[Of Thaw's counsel.]

Another rumor was to the effect that at the conference written authority was given to Clifford W. Hartbridge to act as chief counsel, with Mr. Delmas in charge of all examinations, it was said.

WESTERN UNION FURNISHES NEWS OF HORSERACING

AND PROCEEDINGS IN QUO WARRANTO DEMANDED OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Attorneys Offer to Prove That Pool Rooms Exist in Several Cities in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Feb. 6.—Attorney General Wade H. Ellis received official information of the existence of pool rooms in Columbus, Marietta and Cincinnati. It was a development of the hearing on the demand made by Powell Crossley and John G. Rogers, Cincinnati attorneys, that the attorney general bring quo warranto action against the Western Union Telegraph company and other corporations to prevent them from continuing in the business of furnishing race track news for gambling purposes. The attorneys making the complaint declared they could prove that the Western Union, despite its protests to the contrary, was yet in the race track information business. The hearing was continued until Feb. 23.

The quo warranto action is wanted against the Western Union, the Interstate News Bureau, the Cincinnati Telephone company and the American Telephone and Telegraph company. The claim was made that Western Union operators were at the different race tracks and sent out the news through the Interstate News Bureau, which it is alleged is a "dummy" organized to clear the conscience of Western Union officials.

Smith Succeeds Alger.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 6.—Congressman William Alden Smith was elected by the legislature to fill out the unexpired term of Senator R. A. Alger, who died suddenly in Washington 10 days ago. Congressman Smith had already been elected as Senator Alger's successor at the expiration of his term March 4.

JAPANESE SCOUT THE WAR SCARE

And Believe That the Anti-Japanese Press Cannot Shake Cordiality of Two Nations.

Tokyo, Feb. 6.—The view taken here of the American-Japanese situation arising from the San Francisco school incident is illustrated by the following statement which was issued: "Since the talk of war was first transmitted from America, we have carefully watched the development of feeling here. There has not been the slightest excitement anywhere in the country." The statement concludes with these words: "The talk of war is completely ignored here, and implicit confidence is reposed in President Roosevelt and his government. The (bullshit) of the anti-Japanese press of America are powerless to shake Japan's cordiality toward United States."

Toledo (O.) Yacht club house, valued at $75,000, including furnishings, was destroyed by fire.

NAME SUCCESSOR TO SEN. DRYDEN IN NEW JERSEY

DEADLOCK WAS BROKEN BY RECENT WITHDRAWAL OF DRYDEN.

And the Legislature Then Speedily Elected Frank O. Briggs to the Position.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 6.—The legislature in joint session here chose Frank O. Briggs of Trenton to succeed John F. Dryden in the United States senate. He received 41 out of 78 votes cast. Senator Ackerman (Rep.) voted for ex-Governor Griggs and Senator Colby voted for Justice Pitney. James E. Martin, the Democratic nominee, received 35 votes. Mr. Briggs was born in New Hampshire in 1850. He was a student at Phillips Exeter academy and was graduated from West Point in 1872. He served in the Second United States Cavalry as second lieutenant until 1877, when he resigned to enter the employ of the John A. Roebling Sons company here as an engineer, and is now assistant treasurer of the concern. He has always been prominently identified with politics since leaving the army. He was elected mayor of Trenton in 1899, and in 1902 Governor Voorhees appointed him state treasurer, which position he now holds. In 1904 Mr. Briggs was elected chairman of the Republican state committee and is still at the head of the committee.

JOHN McDONALD MADE PRESIDENT OF THE COMPANY

Which Will Build the Panama Canal if W. J. Oliver Gets the Contract.

New York, Feb. 6.—John M. McDonald of this city, the contractor who constructed the subway, was elected president of the Panama Construction company. This company was formally organized under the laws of the state of New York for the purpose of building the Panama canal in the event the contract is awarded by the government to William J. Oliver, one of the contractors, and his associates. The other officers elected were: First vice president and general manager, W. J. Oliver, chairman of the board, R. A. C. Smith; secretary and assistant treasurer, D. V. Reynolds; treasurer, R. A. Chester. Mr. Oliver has associated himself with nine well-known contractors and, according to Mr. McDonald, all the financial requirements of the government have been met.

MEXICAN VETERAN DIES.

Millersburg, Feb. 6.—Joseph C. McKenzie, aged 70, was buried Tuesday at Nashville. He was a soldier in the Mexican war and but one soldier of that war is now left in Holmes county. The son of Mr. McKenzie is William Bayes, of Mt. Hope, who is also near death. Mr. McKenzie was for 25 years a Mason and was buried by that order.

COLD WAVE IN GREAT NORTHWEST STILL REIGNING

THERMOMETER HAS REGISTERED BELOW ZERO FOR MANY DAYS PAST.

Fuel Famine is Imminent—Fatal Fire in Blizzard—Kentuckians Frozen to Death.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 6.—With very few exceptions there has been below zero weather in and about St. Paul for 17 days, and for the past three days beginning with Sunday, when the official temperature was down to 22 below zero, it has been in that neighborhood. The lowest official temperature was 22 below, while most of the thermometers went as low as 30 below. In North Dakota 30 degrees below zero was quite common, and this, coupled with terrific blizzards, which raged almost without letup until Saturday, made living anything but pleasant. In some towns and in remote parts of the state there has been much suffering on account of little fuel. There have been reports of many people freezing to death in North Dakota, but these reports have been denied.

Fatal Fire in Blizzard.

Heliam, Neb., Feb. 6.—During the height of a blizzard fire swept through the livery stables and living apartments above of Richard L. Vaughn, and burned to death four occupants of the home. Mrs. Vaughn and her two year-old son were caught by the flames as they were groping their way through the smoke. A colored woman was burned in her bed. Thomas Mickey, a stableman, lost his life in an effort to save the horses.

Kentuckians Frozen to Death.

Pierre, S. D., Feb. 6.—The bodies of Wesley T. Banks and Robert Chandler, who were frozen to death on their ranch near Hays, were brought here. The men came here recently from Mt. Vernon, Ky., and were operating a large sheep ranch. The bodies are being held for orders from Kentucky relatives.

Coal Famine Imminent.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 6.—A coal famine is imminent in the Twin Cities, while at Duluth less than 150 miles from St. Paul, there are thousands of tons of every variety. Coal can be brought to St. Paul owing to a shortage of cars. Dealers here say hard coal is not to be had at any price, while soft coal will only last a week. A sudden change in the railroad situation is hoped for.

FIERCE PISTOL DUEL.

Shreveport, La., Feb. 6.—After a desperate pistol fight with a gang of four alleged thieves, the police of this city captured them at Arcadia, La., and four shots were fired and one man was wounded. The prisoners belong to an organization, it is said, which had proved upon such remote towns in the state and Rush county to be a menace. Six dry goods boxes of various sizes were found in Arcadia.

At Winnetka, Minn., Norman McDonald, real estate dealer, and his little daughter burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home. The fire was caused by a lamp exploding.

UNITED STATES WILL NOT BE CAUGHT UNAWARES

War With Japan is Not Expected But Preparations Are Being Made For It.

Washington, Feb. 6.—While strongly and wisely depreciating the sensational talk about war with Japan, the administration has for some time been preparing for such a war should it come. It can be said on good authority that the general board of the navy has submitted to President Roosevelt a complete plan of naval operations against Japan should war come.

Details of this plan of campaign against Japan cannot of course be obtained. It can be stated, however, that one of the principal features calls for the temporary abandonment of the Philippine Islands. Naval officers are agreed that the first move Japan would make would be to seize the Philippines. It is realized that until the United States had defeated the Japanese navy, we could not hope to hold the islands.

It is understood that the retention of Hawaii, and the utilization of Honolulu as a base of supply and coaling station for our Pacific fleet, is a part of the war plan.

The plan of campaign against Japan has not only been worked out by the general board and submitted to the President, but a large number of officers of the navy are familiar with it.

HELPLESS

On the Rocks in a Tremendous Sea Are Two Liners and Thousands May be in Peril.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 6.—Tugs today reached the two steamers which were sighted in Ketch Harbor showing distress signals, and which were today found to be the steamer Mystic from Boston, for Louisburg, towing the steamer Anna, and they are now in dry dock here.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 6.—Two unknown ocean steamers one of which is known to be disabled and the other is thought to be, are anchored in a dangerous position at Ketch Harbor, a few miles west of this city, and the lives of those on board are in peril.

The ships are less than a quarter of a mile off shore within a hundred yards of the breakers. A tremendous sea is running and the spray from the surf has been dashing over the vessels, freezing as it falls. The steamers have fired several guns and are sending up rockets, but on account of the terrific sea no aid can be given the vessels.

BOILER EXPLODES KILLING FOUR

Forward Engine on a Chesapeake & Ohio Double Header Had Frozen Valves.

Mount Sterling, Ky., Feb. 6.—The forward engine of a double-header freight train on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad blew up near Colby station, killing Engineer Shouse, Fireman Marshall and Brakeman Berry. Engineer Harp of the second engine was badly injured. The dead men were horribly crushed and mutilated. Both engines were demolished and several cars were dented. It is said that the explosion was caused by the scarcity of water in the forward engine and the freezing of the valves. Engineer Harp died later of his injuries.

BOAT BLEW UP.

Said to Have Been Engaged in a Race With Another Steamer.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Feb. 6.—By an explosion of the boilers on the steamer Parker, near this city, George Kelly, negro fireman, was killed, and Will D. Sibley and Bob Bass, deckhands, were blown into the water and are supposed to have been drowned. Captain Jim Thompson, in command of the boat, was severely injured as was also Jesse Allison, the engineer, and his wife. The explosion occurred at Williams Island, nine miles below the city, and it is said that it was caused by overpressure on the boilers due to a race between the Parker and another boat.

Dirt Flying on the Isthmus.

Washington, Feb. 6.—While consideration is being given to the question of letting the contract for the digging of the Panama canal, the war is going on there at a rapid pace. A cablegram received at the war department from Chief Engineer Stevens contained the announcement that all previous records had been eclipsed. The dispatch is as follows: "We took out 566,750 cubic yards from Culebra cut in January, about twice the best monthly record made by the French."

BY NUMBERS MOST VICTIMS WERE KNOWN

As They Were Principally Foreigners and Had Few Friends

Except Their Families Who Made Heartrending Scenes At Shaft's Mouth

RECOVERED BODIES MANGLED

Blame for Explosion is Placed on the Company by the Mine's Employees.

Elkins, W. Va., Feb. 6.—Revised estimates of the number of victims killed by the explosion in the Thomas mine do not reduce it. Sixteen dead bodies have been removed from the mine up to 10 o'clock Tuesday night, making the total of known dead at least 19. It is admitted by the company owning the mine that "about 15 men" remain entombed.

Although compressed air was brought to bear upon the interior of the mine it was impossible with the facilities to rid it of all the poisonous gas it contained. However, some efforts of the rescue party were not without success. Practically all bodies recovered were badly mangled. Some were fearfully burned, making recognition quite out of the question.

Not until the gas is driven from the mine can the true extent of the disaster be learned. Most of the victims were foreigners. Many of them were known by number only. It is said. One foreman declared that over 30 foreigners, particularly Hungarians, are still in the mine.

It is asserted that the ventilating fan, which failed when a relief party had entered the mine, resulted in the death of Superintendent Daniel R. Jones. Jones had been out of order—that is, had not been in good repair—for several days. This, however, is denied by the company. But the miners contradict their employers flatly in this matter.

Also it is said that the official gas inspector employed by the company had not investigated the particular draft in which the explosion is believed to have occurred; that when the men went down into the death-hole yesterday they entered the gas zone before they realized what it was, and then it was too late, an open lamp setting off the vapor.

As if they had recovered from their apparent daze produced by the first news of the horror families of the victims crowded about the mine's entrance from morning until night Tuesday and today. In fact, the crowd was so large and violent that ropes had to be stretched between it and the opening.

Despite the vapor pouring from the mine many relatives sought desperately to break through the line and enter, hoping to save their loved ones, but were driven back.

It is announced that an effort will be made to effect an entrance to the mine through an abandoned passage, believed, however, to be filled with cobwebs. This, if possible, will be removed by an army of men. At present it seems to be the only way to reach the imprisoned men. It is thought that it opens directly into the chamber where the greatest carnage was done.

English Premier's Words.

London, Feb. 6.—Premier Campbell-Bannerman in his customary summons to his supporters to attend the reopening of parliament, employs the very unusual phrase "to discuss matters of grave importance." As foreign affairs are now tranquil, these words are regarded as applying to the coming conflict between the house of lords and the house of commons, and judging from the recent platform utterances of prominent members of the government, it is supposed that the ministers will ask the house of commons to pass a resolution limiting the lords' powers of veto.

MODEL FOR STREET OR HOUSE DRESS OF LIGHT WEIGHT CLOTH
Brown and black check serge was used for the model illustrated, although rajah pongee or taffeta silk would make up very effectively after this design. The bodice was trimmed with bands of tucking, brown crocheted buttons with silk cord loops and tailor stitching. A two inch wide band of heavy ecru lace, embroidered with threads of coarse brown silk, outlined the small yoke of thin lace. The skirt was cut in panels and had pointed sections of tucking let in as explained by the drawing.

DANDELION

a safe and sure specific for rheumatism

Guaranteed under Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1906. Serial Number 3517.

Rheumatism for the most part attacks the sinews and muscles of the body. Therefore the joints, the muscle casings and heart valves suffer most. Like gout this disease is caused by an excess of uric acid or blood poison in the system. Rheumatic pains sometimes change their location; wander from one part of the body to another, and visit various joints in succession. The nature of this painful disease is still a matter of opinion, but certain remedies have been discovered that produce immediate and lasting relief, and many times a permanent cure. Probably the most important discovery made in this connection is the famous prescription from which Dr. Edward's Compound Dandelion Tablets are prepared. Thousands of people have used this wonderful remedy for rheumatism and are now well and happy. It will pay you to get a box today.

ALL NIGHT LONG JURY WRESTLED TO FIND VERDICT

IN ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE
TRIED IN THE PROBATE COURT.

Pathetic Case Before Judge Brister
—Common Pleas and General Court News.

For nearly two entire days the Probate court and a jury wrestled with one of the most sensational assault and battery cases ever heard in Licking county. It was the case of the State of Ohio vs. Della Noe, Marshall Noe and Mrs. Made Stiers, who were charged with making an assault and battery on the 5th of last August at Columbia Center, on Mrs. Mollie Hush. The case which attracted wide attention, was tried at the last term of the Probate criminal court and the jury disagreed. It came on for trial again on Monday of this week, and on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the jury retired. The jury, after remaining out all night, returned a verdict Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock of not guilty.

A Pathetic Case.

An exceedingly pathetic case occupied the attention of Probate Judge Brister Wednesday morning, when he ordered Pearl Haffer, the little nine year old son of Mrs. Nancy Haffer, sent to the Children's Home. The boy's father is dead and the mother is in very destitute circumstances. Another son was sent to the Boys' Industrial Home at Lancaster about a year ago for truancy. Tuesday the boy's mother was arrested and sent to jail for stealing railroad iron and the child without a home.

In Common Pleas.

The case of Arlington C. Nessley, et al vs. Anchor Fire Insurance Co., is on trial to the court and jury today. The action is brought upon a policy of insurance covering a quantity of hay in a barn destroyed by fire in 1903. Smythe & Smythe, Kibler & Montgomery; Norpell & Norpell, Plaintiffs.

In the case of Daniel E. Jones vs. William J. Shields S., Susan J. Shields and William J. Shields, Jr., the jurors returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $1808.22. The defendants, William J. Shields Sr. and Susan J. Shields denied the execution of the note. A motion for a new trial has been filed by J. Howard Jones, attorney for the defendants.

Suit in Partition.

Emily Vanwey, guardian of Homer Vanwey and others, has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Mary Vanwey and others for partition of about 100 acres of land in Eden township. There are seven minor heirs and they ask for an order of partition setting off to them their undivided one-seventh part each of the real estate. They say that if this cannot be done without manifest injury to the property that it be appraised and sold according to law. A. Stusel, attorney for plaintiff.

To Practice in Columbus.

Dr. Murray M. Rarick a graduate of the Starling Medical college, who has been away from Columbus for a number of years, has returned and located at 127 West Eighth avenue. Dr. Rarick, after his graduation, was located for six years at Jacksonville, near Newark. From there two years ago he went to New York where he took a special course in medical and surgical work, receiving special mention for his administration of anaesthetics. Later he took a special course at Sloane Maternity hospital and was an examiner for the Brooklyn, New York, Children's society.—Ohio State Journal.

Asks to Set Aside Verdict.

Attorney Smythe has asked Mayor McCleery to set aside the verdict and judgment of the court in the case of Gus Kerns who was convicted before the mayor of keeping his place open for the sale of liquor on Sunday. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

Attorney Smythe names nine reasons why the defendant is justified in asking for a new trial. The motion claims that the mayor refused to accept the defendant's waiver of the examination; that he did not have jurisdiction in the case, and that he erred in admitting certain evidence and compelling witnesses to answer irrelevant questions.

Mr. Smythe stated that Mayor McCleery acted as prosecuting attorney as well as being the court to pass judgment on the defendant.

Furnished Bond.

Marla Boger caused the arrest of Stef Goryaker on the charge of slander. He furnished bond for his appearance before Justice Lake.

Court Notes.

Andrew S. Mitchell has been appointed administrator of the estate of Valley Murray, deceased, of this city. Bond, $4000.

It is nearly always unkind to exult for your exultation can hardly fail to wound some who may have been vanquished.

LEAGUE MEETS NEXT FRIDAY AT BRADFORD

Interstate Magnates to Convene, and Matters of Interest to the O. P.
Will be Discussed.

The meeting of the Interstate league will not be held until next Friday. It will convene at Bradford, Pa. The date was first announced for Tuesday of this week. Some interesting developments are likely to occur at this meeting relative to the question of enlarging the O. P. league. Erie is to try to get the price of her release from the Interstate league reduced from $2,500 to $1,000. If this occurs the O. P. league will be asked to reconsider the question of enlarging the circuit to 10 cities.

The Zanesville committee has not yet received any answer from Erie to the letter that was written informing them that Zanesville would entertain a reasonable proposition from Erie for the release of that city from the Interstate and the admission of both to the O. P. league. Neither has an answer been received from President Norton, who was notified of Zanesville's intention of trying to get into the league.

A meeting of the baseball men of Sandusky was held Monday evening and Charles Mischler was given permission to use such an amount of money, out of that subscribed, as he thought necessary to purchase a franchise. Mischler has been conducting negotiations with Erie for some time, but refuses to tell what has been accomplished. Mischler will go to Erie Thursday evening to confer with Baumeister and to Bradford Friday to attend the Interstate league meeting. At the meeting Friday he will attempt to secure some financial aid from Warren, the town that Erie proposes to put a team in case Erie enters the O. P. league.

Sandusky has telegraphed an offer to Lancaster for her franchise, but the amount has not been disclosed. No answer has yet been received from Lancaster.

WARION HAS A GLOBE TROTTER

New Signed Catcher, Lusk, Has Played All Over the Country, in Various Leagues.

Marion O., Feb. 6.—Chas. Lusk, the newly signed star catcher for the local O. P. league, is something of a globe trotter in base balldom. He is 29 and began playing ball with the Portsmouth team in the Virginia State league in 1896. With Asheville, N. C., he was backstop and first and second baseman for one season. Since then he has been with Bradford, Pa.; Tarboro, N. C.; Portsmouth, O.; Anderson, N. C.; Waterbury, Conn.; Washington, Buffalo and Harrisburg of the outlaw league. Last season he wore the big mitt for Syracuse of the New York State league. Linderman has been nabbed from East Liverpool by Drum and will hold down first station. There will be nothing to interfere with Sunday baseball here. Business men are backing the team with a check for the construction of a new ball park.

WILL TRY TO PLAY IN TIFFIN.

President Paul Sturges of the Mansfield club hopes to make arrangements by which Mansfield can play the Sunday games in Tiffin next season. If this deal goes through the O. P. league will have four Sunday towns. It is not at all likely that the necessary arrangements can be made, but Sturges hopes to close with the Tiffin park owners before the O. P. magnates meet to consider a schedule for the year.

As Tiffin only has a population of 10,000 it is unlikely that Sunday ball would pay and the park promoters will hesitate to go up the grounds. Mansfield had a bitter experience last season trying to play Sunday ball and the club had to pay heavy fines and costs for attempting to play on the seventh day of the week.

CONTRACTS HELD UP.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 6.—Two of the contracts which Manager Hogan sent with a batch of seven or eight to Secretary Farrell of the National Association of Minor leagues, have not been returned.

The two contracts are those of Captain Charley Starr and Catcher Harry Ostiek. The former is claimed by Harrisburg and the latter by Indianapolis. A decision of the national commission in the matter is anxiously awaited.

A story coming from Akron is to the effect that Ostiek who caught Canton last season, had accepted terms with Indianapolis before he did business with Marty Hogan.

It is stated that Manager East of Akron intended to make an effort to secure Ostiek, but did not take up the matter with him when Secretary Williams of Canton informed him that Ostiek belonged to Indianapolis.

ACCEPTANCES

Are Being Received by Mrs. Swan From Many Prominent Men to Attend Lindsey Lecture.

Letters are coming in rapidly at the office of the Postal Telegraph office to Mrs. Mary A. Swan, who is managing the Judge Ben Lindsey lecture at the Auditorium one week from next Friday night. Mrs. Swan recently sent out a large number of circular letters inviting celebrities from various cities in the state besides many invitations which were sent to outside cities.

Letters of regret from R. M. Voorhees of Goshen, C. L. Williams of Granville, W. O. Thompson of Columbus, Editor E. J. Burkam, Probate Judge Samuel M. Black, Hon. L. B. Houck of Mt. Vernon, and others.

Secretary W. M. T. Fields of the Carnegie Technical Institute of Pittsburgh also wrote that he regretted very much that he could not be present. Edward J. Nally, vice president and general manager of the Postal Telegraph company of New York City also sent his regrets.

A large number of invitations have been accepted. Parties from Columbus, Zanesville, Mt. Vernon, Mansfield and other places will come to Newark to hear the lecture.

MIND

Of the Little Girl Became a Monk When Her Mother and Then Her Father Died.

Glasgow, Ky., Feb. 6.—Little Vera Wright, aged 12, has been ordered sent to Hopkinsville, Ky., to be treated for mental aberration. This is the outcome of an inquest, just ended, at which this frail child, wasted and weak, was tried for lunacy.

The story of the mental suffering that dethroned the child's reason and left her a physical wreck is most unusual considering her age. About a year ago her mother died, leaving her as the oldest of four children. The mother's death caused the child deep sorrow, but she bore up until last December, when her father died.

This was more than the little one could endure. She refused to be comforted, and in a few days it was noticed that her mind was becoming impaired. She grew worse rapidly, and on several occasions attempted to end her life. It was decided finally by relatives to hold the inquest. They have hopes that she may be benefited by careful treatment.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MRS. LUCINDA ROOT.

Miss Ethel Cooper of Linden avenue, received a telegram Monday announcing the sad news of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Lucinda Root, who died at Newark, Ohio, early Monday morning. The deceased was well known in this city where she formerly lived. Several years ago she went to Little Washington, Guernsey county, where she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wylick.—Zanesville Signal.

WILLIAM MORRIS.

William Morris, 67 years of age, died Sunday at noon at his home in Fraeyburg. For the past several years the deceased had been a sufferer from cancer but his condition was not considered critical until a few months ago. Mr. Morris was one of the best known citizens of Fraeyburg and was highly respected by all who knew him.

MR. BENNER'S FUNERAL.

SALVATION ARMY

(Ohio Sun.)

Did you ever stop to think what the penny or the small change you dropped into that tumbourine might help to do? It is worth while pausing to consider. In his last annual report the field secretary of the Salvation Army says nearly 12,000,000 persons attended services held in the army's halls in this country last year, besides the millions they reached in the streets. Last year the army furnished more than 12,000,000 meals to hungry men and women and supplied beds to 4,000,000 homeless wanderers. In the various cities of this country the army distributed hundreds of tons of coal and ice to families that otherwise would have suffered from lack of these comforts.

These "pocket bonneted sun angels" as the New York Sun calls them, gathered in 13,000 homeless children and placed them in the snug, warm rescue homes the army manages to maintain with the pennies, nickels and dimes picked up by the passing tumbourine. They nurse the sick, teach the well better ways of living, conduct sewing and cooking classes, plan fresh air excursions for sickly little ones, take care of neglected children whose mothers are away at work, and where the end of life's activities has come amid poverty and distress, they should the dead and give it decent burial.

This great and beneficent organization has grown to its present magnificent proportions since 1865, when the wife of a London preacher conceived the beautiful thought of reaching the people of the slums through the Salvation Army. She was Mrs. Wim Booth and her descendants and her kin are still at the head of this class of rescue work, which has now spread to all the civilized countries of the world. While the ranks of the army are largely recruited from the social classes to which its efforts directly appeal, persons of wealth, title, education and high station have been personally and prominently identified with the work.

The Salvation army long ago passed the stage of ridicule even among the unthinking. It has become a great and respected force for the relief of suffering and the upbuilding of mankind. More power to it!

Also save time, for time is valuable. The foolish man or woman starts out to hunt a room or a position.

How many miles will you travel in such a quest? How much car fare will you spend? How much shoe leather will you wear out? And after all, how many people can you see?

Not many. If in your travels looking for employment you happen to find a man needing help, you are so fagged out you can't talk to him with any show or enthusiasm. He concludes you are slow or dull and decides he does not want you.

A little want ad., that costs you 25 cents, will see thousands of people and talk to them eloquently, while you might wait in the ante-room to be told "he is too busy to see you." Someone will be struck by your offer and your fortune may be made.

ROYAL RECOGNITION OF A NOTED TITLED EXPLORER.

FROM THE GRAPHIC

The Duke of the Abruzzi recently lectured at the Queen's Hall, London, on his achievements in the Mountains of the Moon—"The Peaks, Passes and Glaciers of Ruwenzori," to give it its proper title. It was the most brilliant affair in the history of the Royal Geographical Society. The King and Prince of Wales sat in the right hand corner of the platform to listen to the explorer's tale of travel and discovery, and at the end of the lecture the Duke made a speech congratulating the lecturer, and shook him heartily by the hand.

THIS AND THAT

THE SONG OF THE NEW PATROL.

Why bless our soul!
That new patrol
Is going all the while.
It's almost cinched
A fellow's plucked
If he only takes a smile.
We wonder where the peckers were
Before that wagon came.
And also, if they'd let drunks walk
If they were good and game.

IN POLICE COURT.

C. G. Southern, a barber, was brought before Mayor McCleery Wednesday morning on a charge of being drunk and was fined $5 and costs. Southern explained that he was laying off on account of an injury to his head and that he took a little too much. He created a disturbance at Kerns' restaurant when he was arrested by Officer Dawson.

Mayor McCleery acted as peace-maker Wednesday morning when he succeeded in smoothing out the troubles which Ras White and his wife thought existed between them. White was arrested by Officer Abbott Tuesday night on his wife's complaint. He was charged with disorderly conduct and assault.

An hour's consultation in the Mayor's private office convinced the couple that they should try to weather the domestic storm and continue on their voyage. They left the office in a happy frame of mind and from what could be noticed by outsiders such a thing as domestic difficulties had never entered their minds.

MARK TWAIN ON MRS. MARY EDDY AND HER CULT

LIKENS CHRISTIAN SCIENCE APOSTLE TO POOH-BAR BACKED BY COPYRIGHT

Says the Doctrine She Teaches is Only Fit For Persons Who Will Not Think.

New York, Feb. 6.—Mark Twain has written a new book, which is to be printed in a few days. It is devoted to Christian Science, and in it the author calls attention in his characteristic way to what he regards as the weakness of the Eddy cult. His remarks are chiefly devoted to a review of "Science and Health," a publication of which has been credited to the authorship of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy. Here are some of the things he says:

"The Christian Scientist was not able to cure my stomachache nor my cold, but the horse doctor did it. This convinces me that Christian Science claims too much. In my opinion it ought to let diseases alone and confine itself to surgery. There it would have everything its own way."

"The horse doctor charged me 30 kreutzers, and I paid him; in fact I doubled it and gave him a shilling. Mrs. Fuller brought in an itemized bill for a crate of broken bones mended in 231 places—$1 per fracture."

"A thoughtful and unbiased Mohammedan examined the Westminster catechism. He knows that beyond any question I am spiritually insane. I cannot prove to him that he is insane because you never can prove anything to a lunatic—for that is a part of his insanity, and the evidence of it. He cannot prove to me that I am insane, for my mind has the same defect that afflicts him. All Democrats are insane, but not one of them knows it; none but the Republicans and the mugwumps know it. All the Republicans are insane, but only the Democrats and mugwumps can prove it. The rule is perfect; in all matters of opinion our adversaries are insane. When I look around me I am often troubled to see how many persons are mad."

"Four years ago there were six Christian Scientists in a certain town that I am acquainted with. A year ago there were 250 there. They have built a church and its membership now numbers 400. This has all been quietly done—done without frenzied revivals, without uniforms, brass bands, street parades, corner oratory or without any of the other customary persuasions to a godly life. Christian Science, like Mohammedanism, is 'restricted' to the 'intelligent,' the persons who do not think. There lies the danger. It makes Christian Science formidable. It is 'restricted' to ninety-nine one hundredths of the human race, and must be reckoned with by regular Christianity. And will be, as soon as it is too late."

No matter, she is interesting enough without an amicable agreement. In several ways she is the most interesting woman that ever lived and the most extraordinary. The same may be said of her career and the same may be said of its chief results. She started from nothing. Mrs. Eddy has one very curious and interesting peculiarity; whenever she notices that she is chortling along without saying anything she pulls up with a sudden "God is over us all," or some other, sounding irrelevancy, and for the moment it seems to light up the whole district; then, before you can recover from the shock, she goes flitting pleasantly and meaninglessly along again and you hurry hopefully after her, thinking you are going to get something this time, but as soon as she has led you far enough away from her turkeylet she takes to a tree.

She published her book. She copyrighted it. She copyrights everything. If she should say, "Good morning; how do you do?" she would copyright it, for she is a careful person and knows the value of small things.

When in the beginning she taught Christian Science gratis (for good reasons) pupils were few and reluctant and required persuasion. It was when she raised the limit to $300 for a dollar's worth that she could not find standing room for the invasion of pupils that followed.

"With fine asceticism she goes through the motions of making it difficult to get membership in her church. There is a twofold value in this system: it gives membership a high value in the eyes of the applicant."

"Some of the hostile think that Mrs. Eddy's idea in protecting this property in the interest of the heirs, and in accumulating a great money fortune, is that she may leave her natural heirs well provided for when she dies. I think it a mistake. I think she is of late years giving herself large concern about only one interest—her power and glory and the perpetuation and worship of her church is her per heir, and I think it will get her wealth. It is the torch which is to light the world and the ages with her glory."

In explaining why he wrote the book Mr. Clemens says:

"My purpose has been to present a character portrait of Mrs. Eddy, drawn from her own acts and words solely, not from hearsay and rumor, and to explain the nature and scope of her Monarchy, as revealed in the Laws by which she governs it, and which she wrote herself."

Summarizing her qualities as they appear to him he thus enumerates them:

"A clay head for business and a phenomenally long one."

"Clear understanding of business situations."

"Accuracy in estimating the opportunities they offer."

"Intelligence in planning a business move."

"Firmness in sticking to it after it has been decided upon."

"Extraordinary daring."

"Indestructible persistency."

"Devouring ambition."

"Limitless selfishness."

"A knowledge of the weaknesses and poverties and docilities of human nature and how to turn them to account which has never been surpassed, if ever equaled."

"And—necessarily—the foundation stone of Mrs. Eddy's character is a never wavering confidence in herself."

Concerning her present authority she says she is:

"Pastor Emeritus."

"President."

"Board of Directors."

"Board of Education."

"Board of Lectureship."

"Future Board of Trustees."

"Proprietor of the publishing house and periodicals."

"Treasurer."

"Clerk."

"Proprietor of the teachers."

"Proprietor of the lecturers."

"Proprietor of the missionaries."

"Proprietor of the readers."

"Dictator of the services; sole voice of the pulpit."

"Proprietor of the sanhedrin."

"Sole proprietor of the creed."

(Copyrighted).

"Indisputable autocrat of the branch churches, with their life and death in her hands."

"Sole thinker for the First Church (and the others)."

"Sole and infallible expounder of doctrine, in life and in death."

"Sole permissible discoverer, denouncer, judge and executioner of ostensible hypnotists."

"Fifty-handed god of excommunication—with a thunderbolt in every hand."

"Appointer and installer of the pastor of all the churches—the Perpetual Pastor—Universal, Science and Health, 'the Comforter.'"

The book is evidently written in all seriousness.

FINEST RANGE IN THE WORLD

Near Scene of Commodore Perry's Victory at Port Clinton—Club House for O. N. G.

It has been definitely settled that the National Rifle Association will hold its annual shoot in Ohio this year, beginning during the week of August 26th. The Ohio State Rifle Association will hold its shoot during the same time.

This means there will be competition between all teams from the militia of every state in the Union and also army and navy and those interested in military affairs look forward to this event as one of the most important ever held in Ohio.

By that time this state expects to have one of the finest rifle ranges in the world near Port Clinton, O. The grounds have been named Camp Perry, they being within very short distance of the site where Commodore Perry won his famous victory.

The Ohio State Rifle Association company was organized under the laws of the state and the following officers have been elected:

President—Gen. John C. Speaks of Columbus.

Vice Pres.—Gen. Wm. V. McMacken of Toledo.

Sec. and Treas.—Herbert C. Catrow of Miamisburg.

The company has already raised sufficient funds to insure the construction of a large club house and will make the new place the military home for members of the Ohio National Guard.

The following officers were selected to prepare a program and arrange a schedule of matches with prizes to be competed for at the coming shoot: Col. Lloyd W. Howard of the Sixth regiment, Toledo; Col. Ed. S. Bryant of the Second regiment; Col. E. T. Miller of the adjutant general's office; Major H. L. Yount, of the Third regiment, Greenville; and Major C. S. Winder of General Dick's staff.

PART OF THAW'S JURORS LED BY THEIR FOREMAN IN SEARCH OF A CHURCH.

H. C. DEARLEY (7) L. B. POLTON (11)
D. B. SMITH (FOREMAN) THAW JURORS ON THEIR WAY TO CHURCH

New York, Feb. 6.—Harry K. Thaw's twelve jurors were permitted to separate last Sunday, as five of them elected to go to church. They left one detail—the place of service—to chance.

There was some friendly discussion

THAW TRIAL

was stated. Mr. Gleason, it was said, would act henceforth merely in a consulting capacity.

EFFORTS FAIL

To Get Before the Jury Testimony as to Thaw's Insanity.

New York, Feb. 6.—But little progress was made by the defense in the Thaw trial to get before the jury testimony tending to show that Harry Thaw was insane when he shot and killed Stanford White. Defendant's counsel endeavored in vain to place before the jury evidence tending, it was said, to prove a strain of insanity in the collateral branches of the defendant's family, but they were blocked at every point by District Attorney Jerome, whose objections were upheld by Justice Fitzgerald. The defense did, however, get before the 12 men in the box the testimony of an expert, that in his opinion Harry Thaw was "suffering from insanity" the night of the tragedy. Mr. Jerome undertook to break down the evidence of the alienist, Dr. C. C. Wiley of Pittsburgh, and for three hours put him through a cross-examination as severe as was ever heard in a New York court. The prosecutor was relentless when the question of attending church was broached. Finally five of the jurors decided they would go to church, but where to go was the question. They submitted it to the foreman, Deming B. Smith, who was one of them. The others were George Pfaff, in his attack, and before he had finished Dr. Wiley protestingly declared: "I didn't come here as an expert; I came as a witness to a fact, and I have been converted into an expert without being prepared for it."

Dr. Wiley testified that he predicted his opinion as to Thaw's insanity upon his actions the night of the tragedy, as described to him in a hypothetical question propounded by the defense, and upon an incident which he witnessed on a Pittsburgh streetcar during the summer of 1905. Thaw, said the doctor, acted irrationally on the car.

"Have you ever examined this defendant with any of the recognized tests of insanity?" asked Mr. Jerome. "No," replied the witness.

"Have you ever conversed with him?" "No."

The district attorney then drew from the alienist the opinion that Thaw's acts on the Madison Square Roof Garden, when he killed Stanford White, were not acts of insanity taken singly, but constituted evidence of insanity when considered collectively. At times Dr. Wiley seemed entirely baffled by the questions. He admitted that many of the tests to which the district attorney referred, such as the Rombert test, were unknown to him, and when he was asked to quote from any accepted work on insanity, declared he could not give Henry C. Bearley, Joseph B. Bolton and Bernard Gersman. Not even the foreman would say what church they would attend.

Chance decided the place of worship. The five left the Broadway Central Hotel under guard, walked up the exact language from any book.

It was at the close of Mr. Jerome's cross-examination of Dr. Wiley that the attempt was made to introduce testimony tending to show the strain of insanity said to have existed in certain branches of the Thaw family. Among the witnesses called was Albert Lee Thaw of Richmond, Va., who said that his father and Harry Thaw's father were first cousins. The defense stated its purpose to draw from the witness the fact that his father died in an asylum for the insane, when Mr. Jerome objected. He declared that the relationship of both the witness and his father was too far removed from the defendant to be competent. "And the law," he added, "is not satisfied that a man is insane merely because he dies in an asylum or a retreat for persons suffering from mental disorders. The fact that a man dies in an institution such as that conducted by Dr. Wiley, the eminent specialist we had upon the stand today, for instance, is no proof that he was insane. This must be competent testimony to the fact."

Justice Fitzgerald upheld this view of the matter, saying, however, that his ruling was subject to revision if the attorneys for the defense could cite authorities on the subject. Dr. John F. Deemar of Kittanning, Pa., the family physician of the Conleys, Mrs. William Thaw, the prisoner's mother, having been a Miss Conley, was called to testify as to the mental condition of John Ross, a cousin of Harry Thaw. Mr. Jerome objected. Justice Fitzgerald held that until the defense's authorities on the introduction of testimony as to collateral insanity were presented, he thought it best to rule out all such testimony for the time being.

Dr. C. H. Bingham of Pittsburgh, who has been a family physician of the Thaws for 39 years, took the stand and testified that he had known Harry Thaw ever since his infancy. He had treated him once for St. Vitus dance. Thaw was 7 at the time. He seemed to be a lad of highly nervous temperament and slept badly at night.

COMPELLED

TO STRIP IN THE BIG PITTSBURGH DEPARTMENT STORE OF HORNE & CO.

Before Men Was the Female Employee and She Now Asks Damages in Sum of $20,000.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 6.—Because she was compelled to remove all her clothing by the house detective and the manager, Mrs. Mayme Kerr of Allegheny, former employee of Joseph Horne & Co., one of the biggest department store firms in Pennsylvania, is suing the firm for $20,000 damages. The whole fuss was over 25 cents.

Mrs. Kerr, who is a beautiful, shapely woman of 22 years, sets forth that, as her husband is an invalid, she is compelled to work for their living; that she obtained employment with the firm she now sues; that she one day bought 15 cents worth of lunch tickets at the house restaurant

Broadway to West Third street, turned west to the University Place Presbyterian church. There they listened to a sermon by the Rev. George Alexander. Then they walked back to the hotel. The seven others had spent the time in reading expurgated editions of the Sunday papers.

and that while eating dinner there was hauled roughly away by Joseph C. Wasson, the manager, and the house detective, a woman, who charged her with stealing from the firm. They accused her of having bought the tickets for lunch with a marked quarter, which had been spent at her counter a few minutes before, and that for the purpose of a search she was compelled to take off her clothing and submit to many other indignities. She was sworn at, and after being allowed to resume her clothing was taken to her home by detectives who searched her house for goods which they alleged had been stolen. Nothing was found.

SERVICE HELD COMPULSORY

Governor Magoon's Decree Establishes New Cuban Army.

ORDER CRITICISED AT HAVANA

All Male Citizens to Constitute the National Forces, Which Shall Consist of Permanent Army and Militia. Conditions Governing Recruits and the Salaries of Officers.

Havana, Feb. 6.—A decree prescribing the organization of the new Cuban army has been issued by Governor Magoon.

Quoting the law of Sept. 15, 1906, providing for the increase of rural guard to 10,000 men and the artillery to 2,000 men, the decree declares that all able-bodied male citizens between 21 and 45 years of age shall constitute the national forces, which shall consist of a permanent army and a force of militia. The permanent army is to be designated "The armed force of the republic." The militia while in service shall be subject to the same discipline as the regular force. The permanent army shall consist of a general staff, a corps of rural guards, a corps of field artillery and a corps of coast artillery, the whole under command of a major general. All enlistments in the permanent army are to be for a term of four years. The conditions governing the acceptance of recruits are identical with those which hold in the United States army. The pay of a major general is $6,000, a colonel $2,600, a lieutenant colonel $3,300, majors $2,400, captains $1,800, first lieutenants $1,500 and second lieutenants $1,200 a year.

The discussion in an editorial article on this decree says: "The whole country will be surprised by an order, written in the hand of a foreign governor, establishing in Cuba compulsory military service. No one can hope that the plan announced for increase and re-organization of rural guard will fail to tend to the militarization of our country. From today all Cubans must be soldiers."

GAS MAY GIVE OUT IN THREE YEARS

IS THE OPINION OF JUDGE F. O. LEVERING OF MT. VERNON IN INTERVIEW.

Concerning the Licking-Knox Field, One of the Largest Producers in the Country.

The Ohio State Journal says: There are indications that the big natural gas fields of the Knox-Licking county district, which supply nearly the whole state, may give out in the next three years, according to the opinion of former Probate Judge F. O. Levering of Mt. Vernon, who is secretary treasurer and general manager of the Homer Natural Gas company, with headquarters at Mt. Vernon.

"This winter has been the hardest of all on the gas wells," said former Judge Levering. "Some of the best wells in the field have shown the effects of the tremendous strain. Each year the field to be supplied becomes larger and the drain correspondingly greater."

Many of the wells this winter have given much trouble on account of water, Judge Levering says. The water troubles are caused mainly by the lower pressure of gas, he declares, and the lower pressure of gas is the result of the big drain on the gas supply.

"More than ever this year," he said. "I have noticed the pressure of gas go down. The strain has been terrific."

Judge Levering and other big gas officials believe that even next year may see a diminution of the gas supply.

Some of the biggest cities in the state may be affected. It is believed, however, that other fields may be developed. The section north of the Knox-Licking district is declared to be very promising.

The Knox and Licking county gas fields are among the biggest in the country. Dozens of cities and towns depend upon them.

The supply a district of the state that might be bounded on the east by Barborton and Akron and then running around the state to the north, west and south with Toledo, Oberlin, Fostoria, Lima, Wapakoneta, St. Marys, Celina, Hamilton, Norwood, Springfield, Chillicothe, Circleville, Zanesville and Coshocton, as the boundaries. Intervening towns including Newark, also depend on the big district for their supply. Although in some cases the dependence is partial, in many cases it is total.

Columbus gets its supply both from the Knox-Licking county fields and the wells of Fairfield county. But the former district is newer and more dependence has been placed on it. Should it fail and no new field be discovered, the future of Columbus' natural gas supply would be rather doubtful.

However, Judge Levering does not believe the recent low pressure in Columbus has been due to lack of gas. There is enough gas now, he says, although the pressure is declining, and will decline in the future with great rapidity.

Gerard C. Scott, secretary of the Columbus Gas and Fuel company, believes the prediction is erroneous. He says that although the pressure of gas at some of the wells has gone down, other wells with very strong rock pressure are being drilled almost constantly.

He says that the Sugar Grove field is now 18 years old and still supplying gas. The Knox-Licking field is younger, larger and much more promising, he believes.

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pains of Rheumatism the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood and can only be reached by constitutional treatment—IT CANNOT BE RUBBED AWAY. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the bowels and kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be centered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. It contains no potash, alkali or other mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of purifying, heating extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks. If you are suffering from Rheumatism do not waste valuable time trying to rub a blood disease away, but begin the use of S. S. S. and write us about your case and our physicians will give you any information or advice desired free of charge and will send our special treatise on Rheumatism.

CHARLES GALLOP'S 'BUS

By Byron Williams.

I wonder where Charles Gallop is—'Twas him that druv the 'bus
Back yonder where I uster live, a little country cuss!

Charles Gallop he was big an tall. His 'bus was long an' stout
Th' winders rattled scand'ous like, but never once fell out!

I wonder now where Charlie is? Why, that sleek span o' his Could travel like th' very wind when they got down ter biz!

And Charlie went to all the trains by day or in th' night;
All over town you'd hear him go jest at th' break o' light!

He'd sit high up there on th' 'bus an' "Gid ap!" to th' bay!
An' then he'd sit up straighter yit an' "Gid ap!" to th' gray!

Then, mister man! th' teams he'd pass with rattling, jingling pace—
An' sometimes he would let 'em run, rejoicin' in a race!

Most always lots o' people come to our old town by train,
An' Gallop knew 'em every one on seen' 'em again!

The travelin' men would say, "Hullo!" an' "Gallop, how are you?"
While actresses would smile an' smirk an' giggle, "How-d' do?"

Then Charlie'd holler, "All aboard!" an' pull th' door strap tight,
An' drive like Tam O'Shanter did, across the bridge that night!

One time I went away from home to seek my fortune new;
I rode on top with Gallop then—Gee whiskers, how we flew!

LINNVILLE.

DRUNKENNESS CURED

It will be gratifying to all lovers of temperance and a happy home to know that a simple and a scientific cure for the whiskey and beer habit has been discovered. Orrine never fails to cure drunkenness if it is used in accordance with the simple directions in the package, and the discoverer has so much confidence in the treatment that we are authorized to sell it with an absolute guarantee, to effect a cure or the money will be refunded.

It is in two forms: No. 1 to be given secretly, and No. 2, for those who wish to be cured, $1 each. Mothers and sisters have told us of husbands and brothers who since they were given Orrine, in many cases without their knowledge, have lost all desire for drink, and we are glad to recommend the remedy. Mail orders filled. The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., or F. D. Hall, Newark, O.

PERRYTON.

Mrs. Guy Graham and daughter of Dresden were the guests of Mrs. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pyle, Saturday night and Sunday.

C. E. Collison returned to Newark Sunday after a week's visit at this place.

Dr. and Mrs. Loveless entertained a sleighing party from Frazeyburg on Thursday consisting of Mr. John Norris and family and Mr. A. B. Norris and family.

Meeting is in progress at the M. E. church. The minister, Rev. Mr. Watson, will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Burney of Dresden.

The "rat hunt" supper will come off next Saturday night. The hunters are requested to come.

In the list of M. A. degrees given recently in Scotland women were in the majority, being especially successful in mathematics and education.

Simon Green of Harvard, Mass., has been a teacher of dancing for 62 years, and at the age of 82 is still giving music lessons.

The number of educated women in India is growing fast. Four took their B. A. degree in the Isabella Thoburn college, recently.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE ORPHANUM.

The feature at the Orphanum this week is the high class musical turn of the Masses. The act is good from start to finish and is worked with ease and grace that can well be compared to clock work. Some unique and novel tricks add to the force of the act. Mr. Mass has a number of old friends in Newark, having appeared here with his act 11 years ago, when he was seen in the Charity carnival which was held in the old rink on West Main street. Mr. Mass notes many important changes and improvements in Newark. Since that time this clever team has appeared on some of the best European circuits.

Swain and Powers' clever little comedy sketch has been getting a good share of the applause so far and in spite of the fact that many of the jokes are a trifle worn they are given out in a way that makes them well received. The songs are good.

Jeanere and Ellsworth's musical act is very pleasing so far as the instruments and their playing are concerned. The interesting feature of musical bells played by a pet dog makes a good close for the act and is very enjoyable.

As a dancer Marie Snowden has been winning her audiences here and although quite young, is very good indeed. Her toe dancing is very pleasing. Ethel Place is singing the pretty march song, Flora Dora, with good effect, and the motion picture in the close of the bill tell a good story of a cure for rheumatism.

FIGHT PICTURES PLEASE.

It is a safe wager that Newark women would not go far to see a bull fight when only about a half dozen of the fair sex could be coaxed out to see the reproduction of the Gans-Nelson fight at the Auditorium Tuesday night.

The pictures were good, clear and distinct and accurate as to time. Every round of the big fight was shown and the affair was so realistic that one man is said to have shouted instructions to one of the pugilists. The pictures will be seen Wednesday afternoon and night.

RUFUS RASTUS THURSDAY.

Out of the two score and more artists engaged in this, the second season of "Rufus Rastus," the gigantic and strictly amusing musical extravaganza, scheduled for presentation at the Auditorium next Thursday there remains no less than a dozen high bred entertainers who last season rendered such valuable assistance to Ernest Hogen, the peer of all colored comedians who is still the bright particular star of this one of Hurting and Seamon's most important attractions.

Harry Fiddler, A. D. Boyd, Alice Mackey, Loretta Turner, Henry Troy, Carita Day, Harry Gillman and others who have so ably contributed towards the brilliant success of "Rufus Rastus," will in all probabilities give further accounts of themselves, and in such a manner as to leave no room for greater calculations. All of the very latest song hits to stimulate their comedy indulgence.

ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

On Tuesday evening, February 12, will occur the principal event of the season in Taylor Hall, when Mr. Francis L. Garrity the well known dramatic artist and Shakespearean lecturer will head the Cosmopolitan company in an all professional (possibly not an amateur performance) production of his feature recital in Shakespeare as Richard III.

This recital will consist of a comprehensive and common sense discourse on the technical points of the piece, accompanied by the rendition with scenery and costumes of the principal scenes of the tragedy.

The music on this occasion will be furnished by a high grade sextette and by Miss Mabel Arnold of Columbus, contralto, Miss Mary Hente, pianist, and Mr. Edward Strell, a violinist of ability and note.

This will positively be the most unique and varied pleasant and profitable entertainment of the season. Price 15 cents, reserved seats without extra cost. Usual place. Proceeds will be donated to charity.

Mr. Ed Cush went to Columbus Saturday where he will spend a few days.

Mr. Horace Moore of Steubenville is home on a short visit.

Mr. Fred Hough of Newark is calling on old friends in this vicinity this week.

Mr. Stanley Banner and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, were guests at the Keyes home Sunday.

Messrs. Charles McKinney and F. J. Tramor were in Columbus Thursday.

Mr. Charles Havers spent a few days last week with relatives in Perry county.

Mr. and Mrs. Fern Farber visited at the home of Mr. Burton Keyes, Sunday.

MUSIC, MAGIC, MYSTERY.

Joseph, the great neoromancer, will appear in Taylor hall Thursday (tomorrow) night. This will be the eighth number on the popular lecture course.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

In the health officer's report made to the board of service for the month of January it is stated that there were 47 births during the month, three being still births. There were 23 boys and 24 girls.

There were a total of 21 deaths during the month. Twelve were interred in Cedar Hill cemetery, 1 in Mt. Calvary and 8 were taken out of the city.

By wards, the Second ward leads the list in the number of deaths. There were 10 passed away within the boundaries of that ward. There were four each in the First and Third, and three in the Fourth.

CLOVERPORT GOT COAL.

Cloverport, Ky., Feb. 6.—Threatened with a coal famine the city council instructed City Marshal Dehaven to stop coal trains. Dehaven with an armed force, stopped a Louisville & Nashville freight train and demanded coal. On refusal the marshal drew a gun on the conductor and had three cars of coal uncoupled. Railroad officials were communicated with and agreed to furnish coal by car loads to Cloverport daily.

"DINNER'S COMING

--I SMELL IT"

Does Your Stomach Feel Happy When Meal Time Comes?

When you sniffle in the air the appetizing aroma of something cooking, do you feel that you could sit down, open your mouth, pin back your ears and eat with a delicious gusto, everything set before you, and not feel any bad effects from it?

In other words, can your poor stomach take care of everything and anything you put into it? There are thousands and thousands of people who do not know what it is to have a good, strong, healthy stomach, nor do they realize what it is to have a good appetite.

You can have an all powerful stomach and a fetching appetite for every meal, and every day, if you give your stomach a rest, and let something else take hold of your food for you and digest it as it comes into the stomach, something that is harmless, but that really does the work of digesting, quickly and thoroughly.

This "something" is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the most effective little tablets in the world for curing anything that may be wrong with your stomach. One ingredient of these precious little workers digests 2,000 grains of the coarsest or richest food put into the stomach. Think of it, 2,000 grains! They are really an artificial stomach, because they act just like the stomach, they digest your food, just as though you didn't have a stomach at all. It supplies the stomach with the digestive juices which have become weak and scanty.

Then your indigestion, dyspepsia, sour risings, brash, belchings, acidity, fermentation, loss of appetite, aversion and nausea, will be no more. You can then eat anything you want, all you want, whenever you want, and your stomach will feel fine before and after your meals. Your appetite will be a thing of pleasure to have, your meals will be a pleasure to eat and relish, and your digestion will be thorough and soothing to the whole body.

You can't do your work well, or be cheerful, or have energy or vim or ambition, when your stomach is bad. Make yourself feel good after a hearty meal, feel good all over, clear your mind and make you enjoy life, by taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Give your stomach a rest, so it can right itself, then you need fear nothing. Send us your name and address today and get a free sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets by return mail. After you have tried the sample, you will be so thoroughly convinced of what they can do for you that you will go to your nearest druggist and get a 50c box of them.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart, Co., 59 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Because the schools in France were closed in August, giving the boys a chance to devote their time to smoking, it is said that the receipts of the French tobacco monopoly increased $200,000 for that month.

TUMORS CONQUERED

Overwhelming Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so insidious that frequently its presence is wholly unsuspected until it is well advanced.

So called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thigh.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, right away and begin its use.

The following letters should convince every suffering woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 836 W. Colfax Ave., South Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound. Your medicine removed a cyst tumor of four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that only an operation could help me. I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 26 Ruggles St., Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and today I am a well woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system."

Mrs. Perry Byers, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

STANDARD OIL CO. ISSUES STATEMENT

DENYING THAT ANY IMPOSITION WAS PRACTICED ON THE NEWSPAPERS.

Pretty Meigs County Girl Awarded
$5,000 Damages—Ohio News
Paraphrased.

New York, Feb. 6.—William P. Howe, assistant secretary of Standard Oil company, issued a statement in which he declared that "no such imposition upon the newspapers as the report of the interstate commerce commission infers was practiced by the Standard Oil company." The statement dealt mainly with the evidence given to the commission by Malcolm Jennings of Lancaster, O., and claims the testimony of Mr. Jennings was garbled. Mr. Jennings testified he conducted a private advertising agency, and that he had not offered any publisher any editorial matter as advertising. Mr. Howe states there was absolutely no foundation in the evidence, or in fact for the statement in the commission's report, that contracts were made by the Standard for display advertising and then used to cover "reading matter."

Receiver For Cold Storage Plant.
Toledo, O., Feb. 6.—Federal Judge Taylor, on application of Oscar H. Paddock of Pana, Ill., a stockholder, appointed C. M. Feilbach receiver of the Toledo Cold Storage company. The latter is capitalized at $100,000. The company supplied artificial ice to the Hygeia Ice company, which was a member of the local ice trust, and the petitioner in the receivership case alleges that the odium attached to the ice trust caused a slump in the cold storage company's business.

Did Not Use Bridge.
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 6.—Because he neglected to use the bridge which he himself had forced the Pennsylvania road to build, James Kelley, 70, a wealthy real estate owner, was killed by a train at the Setebel avenue crossing. Some time ago Kelley was struck at this point and his arm crushed so badly that it had to be amputated. He entered suit and forced the railroad to build a bridge.

For Girls' Dormitory.
Wooster, O., Feb. 6.—It was announced that L. H. Severance of Cleveland has sent word that he would furnish the sum needed for the completion of the girls' dormitory of the Wooster college. The structure, it is claimed, will cost $100,000. The sum Mr. Severance will pay is estimated at $30,000. The building is to be known as Holden Hall, in honor of L. E. Holden of Cleveland.

Receiver's Suit.
Toledo, O., Feb. 6.—Judson Harmon, receiver of the Pere Marquette Railroad company, has instituted suit against the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton Railroad company, in common pleas court here, for $17,459 alleged to be due for handling cars for the defendant at Detroit.

Held For Killing Union Man.
Ashtabula, O., Feb. 6.—George Butler of Cleveland, an iron worker, was shot and killed at Ashtabula Harbor when Butler was on his way to work. He was stopped by three or four men. There was a fight, shots were fired, and Butler fell dead. The murder is believed to be the result of trouble between union and nonunion men, which has been on ever since a Pittsburgh company began improvements for Pennsylvania company at Ashtabula Harbor. G. W. Ryle, foreman of the nonunion men, was arrested for the killing of Butler. He made a statement admitting that he was the one who shot the man to death. Ryle says that Butler knocked him down from behind and that he shot in self-defense.

Girl Wins Suit.
Marietta, O., Feb. 6.—The breach of promise suit of Emma Scott, the Meigs county girl who is attending a commercial college here, against Dr. Carl Mitchell of Chicago, consumed but 30 minutes in the trying before Judge Jones here. Miss Scott was the chief witness. She stated that Mitchell promised to marry her in 1901, but failed to do so. He later agreed to settle with her for $525, paid $25 of that amount and skipped. The jury was out but 15 minutes and awarded the plaintiff judgment in the sum of $5,000, less the $25 already paid.

Governor Welcomes Delegates.
Columbus, O., Feb. 6.—The eighth annual convention of the National Builders' Supply association opened here with about 500 delegates in attendance. Governor Harris delivered an address of welcome and Gordon Willis of St. Louis, president of the association, responded.

Hermits' Death.
Toledo, O., Feb. 6.—Infirm and helpless, John Artz, 81, fell out of bed and was frozen to death before aid reached him. Artz lived the life of a hermit and was found by his daughter in his little hut when she went to administer to his wants.

Pa'rolman Isaac Lewis, walked into the office of Police Captain Holzappel at Jackson, Mich., and without waiting shot him through the heart, killing his superior instantly. Believed insane.

PERRY-LEATHERMAN WEDDING AT CENTERBURG

The marriage of David LeDow Perry, mayor of Croton, bearing the distinction of being the youngest mayor in Ohio, and Miss Grace Florence Leatherman, the daughter of W. T. Leatherman, a well to do manufacturer of Centerburg, Knox county, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday at noon.

by the Rev. Mr. Garner of Columbus Grove, Ohio.

The ceremony was beautifully and impressively performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the popular young couple. The decorations of the Leatherman home were impressive in their beauty, with roses and lilies being used to carry out the beautiful scheme of ornamentation. To the notes of the Mendelssohn wedding march, played by Mrs. Clarence Wells of Croton, the bride and groom, attended by Miss Gertrude Wolfe of Columbus, and Mr. Don Hoover of Columbus, approached the altar. By use of this service the Rev. Dr. Garner pronounced them man and wife.

Soon following the ceremony proper a delightful four course banquet was served, 15 guests being seated at the bride's table, which was most attractively decorated with the prevailing colors and flowers. At the table of the bride were seated the immediate families of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Perry of Croton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Leatherman.

Some of the very beautiful gowns of the occasion helped materially to add to the splendor of the affair. That of the bride was of white organdy over claret de lune tulle and silk and was faintly tinted in Irish

APOLOGY OFFERED BY SENATOR BAILEY

AFTER INSINUATING THAT A CERTAIN WITNESS WAS A LIAR.

Deputy Sheriff Interferes and Serious
Trouble was Averted at the Investigation.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 5.—A dramatic scene was enacted in the Bailey investigation Tuesday, shortly after the legislative committee resumed consideration of the charges against the senator. E. N. Mentz of Houston, was on the stand when Representative Cook, who is prosecuting the charges against Senator Bailey, asked Mr. Mentz if Colonel Cowart of Dallas went to New York to see Bailey while he was there, ostensibly to have his throat treated, but was really there to attend to business for the Kirby Lumber company.

Sensor Bailey, who had just entered the room a few minutes before, arose and said "that any one who said that Cowart went to New York to see him was a liar."

The witness understood that Senator Bailey meant him, and he arose in his seat and declared emphatically that he would allow no man to call him a liar. He asserted that he was not a willing witness, "but so help me God I will allow no man to call me a liar!" he shouted.

Sensor Bailey started for the witness, who seemed ready to meet him. Deputy Sheriff White stopped Senator Bailey and trouble was averted. The Senator then apologized to the committee, declaring that he had been irritated so much during the past few weeks that he could hardly help his action. He asserted that it was hard to keep from denouncing what he knew to be lies.

Representative Cook retorted that Bailey had legal advisers who were able to take care of his interests.

The entire afternoon was given over to the examination of witnesses without any very material points being brought out other than that the witness knew nothing of a damaging nature against Senator Bailey.

The chairman of the committee announced that the attorneys of the Waters-Pierce Oil company interests in this city had received a telegram from H. Clay Pierce in St. Louis stating that he would not be able to see the subcommittee there to examine him next week, so their departure will be deferred. The chairman announced that John W. Gates, who is now at Port Arthur, Texas, had been subpoenaed to appear before the committee, and that they were considering summoning several other witnesses and in all likelihood the committee would not complete its labors before the later part of next week, if then.

It is not known when Senator Bailey will go on the stand as the committee had informed him that he can be the last witness.

CLEMENCEAU'S

Fall and Rise of Briand Expected Expected in France at any Moment.

Paris, Feb. 6.—In competent quarters Premier's Clemenceau's position is regarded as seriously compromised, and his sudden retirement or downfall would not create surprise. Although the cabinet Tuesday formally approved the circular sent by Minister of Education Briand to the Prefects on the subject of granting leases of the churches to parish priests, it is an open secret that the Premier is not in sympathy with the conciliatory policy, and in the lobbies of the Chambers a sensational climax was anticipated if the followers of ex-Premier Combes forced the debate to an issue. At the same time it was the general opinion that M. Briand's policy would command a majority, and that the Minister of Education would succeed to the Premiership if M. Clemenceau were defeated.

Some of the newspapers here attribute the changed attitude of both church and state to the influence of King Edward, who is represented as fearing, in the event of a final rupture between Germany and France, the King's influence as a protector of the Christians in the near and far East. The King's intervention, however, is authoritatively denied.

So far as the near East is concerned, it is pointed out that the Vatican is not a party to the arrangement with the Porte for the protection of the Christians and that the condition for the transfer of the Catholic missions in Turkey were satisfactorily arranged between the Italian Foreign Minister and the French Ambassador at Rome in an agreement entered into more than a year ago. In the far East the situation is unchanged.

RUSH ORDERS FOR WAR CRAFT.

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—Rush orders have been received here for work on several of the new war craft at Mare Island. Included in these instructions were orders that submarines Pike and Grampus, be made ready for commission as rapidly as possible. The orders also call for the repairing of the gunboat Yorktown at once.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Strained Relations.

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—So serious do the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad consider the situation between the railroad and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen who are demanding an increase of pay, that, following a meeting between General Manager Atterbury and a committee of employees at Broad street station yesterday, a special meeting of the officers and a number of the directors was held to consider what should be done in the event of a strike.

Final refusal was given the men's demands and the angry disposition shown by the committee caused such apprehension that measures were at once taken to prepare for emergencies.

A hurry call was sent to members of the railroad detective force in all parts of the state to report at once to the head of the department in this city. By evening a large force had been gathered.

With the trainmen in their fight are the conductors, and it is said that in a day or two the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will take their stand, putting the railroad officials on the defensive.

Appointed R. R. Surgeon.

Coroner L. L. Marriott has been appointed surgeon for the B. & O. Railroad company between Newark and Mt. Vernon, effective Feb. 1.

B. & O. Makes Test Run.

The B. & O. railroad made a test run of the fast freight train No. 97 between New York and Chicago over this division last week and there is every reason to believe that the run will be continued and was a success. From one to three sections of the fast train are being run over this division regularly, and this train has been taken off the schedule of the Pittsburgh and Akron divisions. The train was taken off this part of the line about a year ago, as it was thought that better time could be made over the other division.

Railroaders Get Increase.

Washington, Feb. 6.—All conductors, trainmen and yardmen of the Southern railway are to receive an increase in wages aggregating between $350,000 and $400,000 a year. The advance affects hundreds of men. Through freight conductors are to be paid on a basis of $3.18 per 100 miles; local freight conductors, $3.50 per 100 miles; local freight brakemen, $2.15 per 100 miles, and through freight brakemen $1.75 per 100 miles. Other conductors and trainmen are granted proportionate increases, as are the yardmen.

COACH ON FIRE; TRAIN'S MAD RUN

Covers Twelve Miles in Ten Minutes to Get the Aid of a Fire Department.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 6.—Passengers who arrived in St. Paul on the sleeper of a Northwestern train did not know that their car caught fire during the night and the train raced a distance of 12 miles in 10 minutes to secure the services of a fire department. Fire was discovered in the rear of the coach at Caledonia, and an investigation showed the blaze to be beyond the power of the train crew to fight. Word was sent ahead to Beloit, where a fire department awaited the arrival of the train. The fire was put out without awakening the passengers and the car proceeded with a big hole in its roof.

Indorse Swettenham.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 6.—At a meeting of the city council Philip Stern, the representative of Kingston in the legislative council, proposed a motion expressing unabated confidence in Governor Swettenham. After a short debate the motion was carried, 4 to 2. The passing of this motion has created much indignation in Kingston, and notice already has been given that it will be rescinded.

No Springfields Used.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Sergeant Harris of Company D, Twenty-fifth infantry, testified before the senate committee on military affairs, which is conducting an investigation of the Brownsville (Tex.) affair. Sergeant Harris stated that in his opinion no Springfield rifles were used the night of the rioting. Witness said he was familiar with the sounds of various makes of weapons, and that he heard no firing from Springfields, with which the regiment was equipped.
